About Band Academy

We have been leading sessions for three years now in schools, offering expert tuition on instruments, songwriting, performing and 'band branding'.

Everything we do is centred around empowering every young person we work with to realise they have unlimited potential and our instrument lessons are carefully crafted to reflect this.

What are the instrument lessons like?

We are passionate about bringing interactive, engaging and unique tuition. We ensure that your child develops their skills and is able to apply them in a variety of ways. With a modernised approach, smaller groups and young enthusiastic tutors, we hope to inspire the next generation of musicians!

Adam will be your main tutor!
